FREEDMEN'S BUREAU PRESERVATION PROJECT

This National Archives microfilm publication is part of a multiyear project to microfilm the field office records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (Freedmen's Bureau). The project was made possible by the United States Congress through The Freedmen's Bureau Records Preservation Act of 2000 (Public Law 106-444). When completed, all of the field records for the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and for the District of Columbia will be available on microfilm. For microfilm availability and description, view both the microfilm catalog Black Studies: A Select Catalog of National Archives Microfilm Publications and the National Archives microfilm locator on our web site at www.archives.gov.

INTRODUCTION

On the 133 rolls of this microfilm publication, M1904, are reproduced the records of the Kentucky headquarters for the Assistant Commissioner and his staff officers and the subordinate field offices of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865-1872. These records consist of bound volumes and unbound records, containing materials that include letters sent and received, monthly reports, registers of complaints, labor contracts, and other records relating to freedmen's claims and bounty payments. These records are part of the Records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, Record Group (RG) 105.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, also known as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established in the War Department by an act of Congress on March 3, 1865 (13 Stat. 507). The life of the Bureau was extended twice by acts of July 16, 1866 (14 Stat. 173), and July 6, 1868 (15 Stat. 83). The Bureau was responsible for the supervision and management of all matters relating to refugees and freedmen, and of lands abandoned or seized during the Civil War. In May 1865, President Andrew Johnson appointed Maj. Gen. Oliver Otis Howard as Commissioner of the Bureau, and Howard served in that position until June 30, 1872, when activities of the Bureau were terminated in accordance with an act of June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366). While a major part of the Bureau's early activities involved the supervision of abandoned and confiscated property, its mission was to provide relief and help freedmen become self-sufficient. Bureau officials issued rations and clothing, operated hospitals and refugee camps, and supervised labor contracts. In addition, the Bureau managed apprenticeship disputes and complaints, assisted benevolent societies in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen in legalizing marriages entered into during slavery, and provided transportation to refugees and freedmen who were attempting to reunite with their family or relocate to other parts of the country. The Bureau also helped black soldiers, sailors, and their heirs collect bounty claims, pensions, and back pay.

The act of March 3, 1865, authorized the appointment of Assistant Commissioners to aid the Commissioner in supervising the work of the Bureau in the former Confederate states, the border states, and the District of Columbia. While the work performed by Assistant Commissioners in each state was similar, the organizational structure of staff officers varied from state to state. At various times, the staff could consist of a superintendent of education, an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a disbursing officer, a chief medical officer, a chief quartermaster, and a commissary of subsistence. Subordinate to these officers were the assistant superintendents, or subassistant commissioners as they later became known, who commanded the subdistricts.

The Assistant Commissioner corresponded extensively with both his superior in the Washington Bureau headquarters and his subordinate officers in the subdistricts. Based upon reports submitted to him by the subassistant commissioners and other subordinate staff officers, he prepared reports that he sent to the Commissioner concerning Bureau activities in areas under his jurisdiction. The Assistant Commissioner also received letters from freedmen, local white citizens, state officials, and other non-Bureau personnel. These letters varied in nature from complaints to applications for jobs in the Bureau. Because the assistant adjutant general handled much of the mail for the Assistant Commissioner's office, it was often addressed to him instead of to the Assistant Commissioner.

In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard in July 1865, the Assistant Commissioners were instructed to designate one officer in each state to serve as "general Superintendents of Schools." These officials were to "take cognizance of all that is being done to educate refugees and freedmen, secure proper protection to schools and teachers, promote method and efficiency, correspond with the benevolent agencies which are supplying his field, and aid the Assistant Commissioner in making his required reports." In October 1865, a degree of centralized control was established over Bureau educational activities in the states when Rev. John W. Alvord was appointed Inspector of Finances and Schools. In January 1867, Alvord was divested of his financial responsibilities, and he was appointed General Superintendent of Education.

An act of Congress, approved July 25, 1868 (15 Stat. 193), ordered that the Commissioner of the Bureau "shall, on the first day of January next, cause the said bureau to be withdrawn from the several States within which said bureau has acted and its operation shall be discontinued." Consequently, in early 1869, with the exception of the superintendents of education and the claims agents, the Assistant Commissioners and their subordinate officers were withdrawn from the states.

For the next year and a half the Bureau continued to pursue its education work and to process claims. In the summer of 1870, the superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, and the headquarters staff was greatly reduced. From that time until the Bureau was abolished by an act of Congress approved June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366), effective June 30, 1872, the Bureau's functions related almost exclusively to the disposition of claims. The Bureau's records and remaining functions were then transferred to the Freedmen's Branch in the office of the Adjutant General. The records of this branch are among the Bureau's files.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU IN KENTUCKY

ORGANIZATION

From July 1865 until June 1866, Maj. Gen. C. B. Fisk served as Assistant Commissioner for both Kentucky and Tennessee. Fisk appointed Bvt. Brig. Gen. John Ely to serve as chief superintendent for the Bureau at Kentucky (from March to June 1866). Ely established his headquarters at Louisville, Kentucky, and divided his operations into five subdistricts: Lexington, Louisville, Northwestern, Southern, and Central. Records relating to Kentucky created prior to Ely's tenure may be included among the files of the Assistant Commissioner for Tennessee.

In June 1866, Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis was appointed as the first Assistant Commissioner for Kentucky. Superintendents (or subassistant commissioners) employed under Davis were generally responsible for from 3 to 11 counties, and agents (civilian and military) from 1 to 3 counties. Agents received their orders directly from superintendents, and all superintendents were required to submit monthly reports of their activities to the Assistant Commissioner. Brig. Gen. Sidney Burbank succeeded Davis in March 1867 and was replaced by Maj. Benjamin Runkle, who served from January 1869 to May 1869 as Assistant Commissioner and superintendent of education. In August 1870, when superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, Runkle served as claims agent for Kentucky until July 1871. H. H. Ray succeeded Runkle as claims agent, and served in this capacity until December 1871. P. J. Overley became the claims agent in January 1872 and remained in this position until the Bureau's operations in Kentucky were discontinued in April. The major subordinate field offices for the Bureau at Kentucky included those with headquarters at Bowling Green, Lebanon, Lexington, Louisville, and Paducah. For a list of known Kentucky subordinate field office personnel and their dates of service, see the Appendix.

ACTIVITIES

While the Freedmen's Bureau did not begin full operations in Kentucky until June 1866, its activities in the state generally resembled those conducted in other Southern states. The Bureau supervised labor contracts between planters and freedmen, administered justice, assisted freedmen in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen legalize marriages, and worked with black soldiers and their heirs in processing claims relating to military service.

The regulation of written labor agreements between planters and freedmen was a major concern of the Freedmen's Bureau. In a circular issued on July 24, 1865 (Circular Number 2), Assistant Commissioner Fisk told his subordinates that for both Kentucky and Tennessee freedmen must be free to choose their own employers and that wages were to be based on supply and demand rather than a fixed rate. Bureau officials were to negotiate and approve labor contracts and enforce violations by either party. Compulsory unpaid labor was strictly prohibited. In some areas of Kentucky, planters refused to enter into written agreements with freedmen, and freedmen themselves were reluctant to enter into annual agreements for fear of being reduced to slavery. However, with strong reservations, Bureau officers negotiated monthly agreements for them but encouraged freedmen to sign annual contracts that offered yearlong employment. Wages for monthly contracts ranged from $8 to $10 a month for adult male field hands, well below the state's average wage of $15 a month for men. However by the summer of 1866, with the Bureau's insistence, adult laborers in the tobacco region of the state received $25 per month and laborers in the farm belt areas earned $12 per month. In some Kentucky counties, freedmen received a third of the crops rather than wages. However, because of the shortage of laborers in the state, freedmen were able to demand higher wages, and thus over time the sharecropping system became less attractive.¹

The Bureau worked to protect the rights and legal status of freedmen, which, despite the ending of slavery by the 13th Amendment, were still endangered by the persistence of the old slave codes. On May 30, 1865, Commissioner Howard issued Circular Number 5, authorizing Assistant Commissioners to establish courts in states where the old codes existed and the right of blacks to testify against whites was prohibited. Gen. Fisk subsequently announced to the citizens of Kentucky that freedmen courts would operate in the state as long as freedmen weren't given the same rights as whites. By 1867, as a result of several Federal court rulings, Bureau courts ceased to operate in Kentucky. When state courts denied black testimony, the agency, under provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1866, took cases involving freedmen to the U.S. District Court of Kentucky. In instances where freedmen lacked resources to pursue their cases in Federal court, the Bureau provided transportation for witnesses and other forms of assistance. Despite the Bureau's efforts to safeguard rights and secure justice for freedmen in Kentucky, admitting the testimony of blacks against whites still remained an issue in 1869 when Bureau Assistant Commissioners and their subordinates were withdrawn from the states. However, in January 1872, with a change in public opinion and pressure from the courts, the Kentucky State Legislature amended state law and allowed blacks to testify.

When Gen. John Ely began his duties as chief superintendent for Kentucky under Gen. Fisk's supervision, there were 30 freedmen schools and more than 2,000 students. The schools were organized and maintained by black churches, with black clergy as instructors. Freedmen schools faced widespread violence and white opposition, and in many cases, teachers and students were forced to abandon efforts to maintain school buildings. Ely and his subordinate assisted freedmen in reopening schools that had been forced to close.² Under Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis, who replaced Ely in the summer of 1866, the number of freedmen schools increased to 54, with some 67 teachers and more than 3,200 students. Excluding the schools established at Lexington and Covington under the auspices of the Cincinnati Branch of the Western Freedmen's Aid Society and the Cincinnati Branch of the American Missionary Association, the freedmen schools were taught by black teachers who were supported by subscriptions from parents and black religious institutions. The Bureau, however, rented the building for the school at Lexington. Under Brig. Gen. Sidney Burbank, who succeeded Davis in March 1867, the number of freedmen schools increased to 96, accommodating about 5,000 students aged 6-18. By

September 1868, in spite of continued violence and opposition, the Bureau had provided support for 135 day schools and 1 night school, serving more than 6,000 students.³

On February 14, 1866, the Kentucky State Legislature passed an act legalizing marriages freedmen had entered into during slavery and authorizing black ministers to solemnize such marriages. Nearly 2 weeks later, on February 26, 1866, Assistant Commissioner Fisk issued Circular Number 5, in accordance with the Kentucky law, directing those freedmen who sought to solemnize a marriage to the county clerk for a marriage license. If the county clerk refused to issue a license, Bureau officials in the subdistricts were authorized to solemnize marriages and issue marriage certificates. Local Bureau officers were required to maintain a register of freedmen marriages and forward a report of such marriages to the Assistant Commissioner at the end of each month. Subordinate Bureau officers were also told to notify persons living as man and wife who had not legalized their marriage, to report to the Bureau to take the necessary steps to do so. Persons who failed to comply were guilty of a misdemeanor and were to be punished by a fine and imprisonment.⁴ This microfilm publication reproduces marriage licenses, certificates, and registers of marriages for the Kentucky subdistricts at Augusta, Bowling Green, Columbus, Cynthiana, Owensboro, Paducah, Mt. Sterling, and Winchester. A single freedmen marriage license and a marriage certificate from Kentucky, filed in the Bureau's headquarters records, has been reproduced on roll 1 of National Archives Microfilm Publication M1875, Marriage Records of the Office of the Commissioner, Washington Headquarters of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1861-1869.

In addition to assisting freedmen in solemnizing slave marriages and efforts to sustain the black family, the Bureau helped discharged soldiers, sailors, marines, and their heirs in claims for back pay, bounty payments, and pensions. In accordance with a law passed by Congress on March 29, 1867 (15 Stat. 26), making the Bureau the sole agent for payment of claims relating to black veterans, Bureau disbursing officers assisted freedmen in the preparation and settlement of military claims. In November 1866, in spite of the difficulties in locating veterans who fled the state for fear of violence, Assistant Commissioner Davis reported that he had forwarded more than 260 black soldiers' claims for back pay and bounty payments to Commissioner Howard's office in Washington, DC. In the following year, Assistant Commissioner Burbank reported that his office had assisted nearly 500 veterans with military claims, and in the fall of 1868, for the year ending October 10, 1868, that more than 1,100 received bounty payments through his office.⁵

RECORDS DESCRIPTION

These records consist of volumes and unbound records. The volumes reproduced in this microfilm publication were originally arranged by type of record and thereunder by volume number. No numbers were assigned to series consisting of single volumes. Years later, all volumes were arbitrarily assigned numbers by the Adjutant General's Office (AGO) of the War Department after the records came into its custody. In this microfilm publication, AGO numbers are shown in parentheses to aid in identifying the volumes. The National Archives assigned the volume numbers that are not in parentheses. In some volumes, particularly in indexes and alphabetical headings of registers, there are blank numbered pages that have not been filmed.

The volumes consist of letters and endorsements sent and received, press copies of letters sent, registers of letters received, letters and orders received, registers of freedmen court cases, special orders and circulars issued, registers of claimants, registers of complaints, marriage certificates, and monthly reports forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner. The unbound documents consist of letters and orders received, unregistered letters and narrative reports received, special orders and circulars issued, and general orders and circulars received. The unbound records also contain monthly reports; labor contracts; marriage certificates, and records relating to claims.

Some of the volumes contain more than one type of record, reflecting a common recording practice of clerks and staff officers of that period. On roll 93, for example, the volume of contracts for the Columbus field office also contains a register of marriages. Some other examples of additional series within volumes can be found in records on rolls 106, 123, and 133. Researchers should read carefully the records descriptions and arrangements in the Table of Contents to make full use of these documents.

RELATED RECORDS

In the same record group, RG 105, and related to records of the Bureau's field offices for Kentucky, are those of the Bureau headquarters in Washington, DC, and previously microfilmed records of the Assistant Commissioner and the superintendent of education for Tennessee. These record series are available in the following National Archives microfilm publications:

Records in other National Archives record groups supplement those of the Assistant Commissioner. In Records of United States Army Continental Commands, 1821-1920, RG 393, are records of the military district that included Kentucky. Records relating to employment and welfare of freedmen and abandoned property before the establishment of the Bureau are among Records of Civil War Special Agencies of the Treasury Department, RG 366. The records of the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, 1865-1874, in Records of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, RG 101, contain information relating to former slaves who maintained accounts with bank branches in Kentucky.

Registers of Letters Received

The twelve volumes of registers of letters received are dated March 1866–April 1872 (1–12). Entries in the first nine registers, March 1866–February 1870, are arranged alphabetically by initial letter of the surname of the correspondent and thereunder chronologically. However, each register does not contain all alphabetical divisions. For example, the “As” are in volumes (1), (3), and (9) only, and the “Gs” are in volumes (1), (2), (3), (6), and (9) only. The volume listings below show the initial letters of surnames included in each volume. The entries within each alphabetical division are numbered with a separate numerical sequence for each year, but don’t always span the time period listed below.

The last three registers, January 1870–April 1872, are arranged by time period. The entries in volumes 10 and 11 are arranged alphabetically by initial letter of the surname of the correspondent and thereunder in chronological order and numbered. The entries in volume 12, July 1871–April 1872, are arranged in chronological order and numbered with a separate numerical sequence for each year. The name index to volume 12 is volume (13) above. The letters received relating to the registers, March 1866–February 1872, are listed below.

P. M. Brig. Genl. J. C. Davis, Pay Master Washington, Feb 4. 1867.
Respectfully returned to P. M. Maj. Genl. J. C. Davis, Asst. Comr., remarking that it does not appear that the nature of Capt R. E. Johnston's duties requires that he should be excused, and a provision is made in the "Manual" for one here for years at his post as the Head Quarter of the 1st. Div. of the 1st. Army & for the being of others when required for the performance of temporary duty. It would seem that to authorize an officer to be mounted at his own expense in order that he might draw forage, would involve an unnecessary expense to the Govt.

Mr. H. Dudley Cummings will be informed that he will be held responsible to the U.S. Government for him and Thomas Elliott Agent of this Bureau.

Had the proceedings in this case, before Judge Hays, resulted in taking the child away from Mr. Cummings the Assistant Commissioner would have ordered its return to him & would have used the U.S. troops under his command, if necessary, to enforce his decision.

Respectfully forwarded to Maj Gene 00 Howard Asst Comm Washington Dc who is requested to authorize Bot Brig Genl USA City Officer of the funds of this Bureau for Kentucky to pay the enclosed vouchers of Jack Jay Esq. from the Refugee & Freedmen Funds.

I gave verbal authority to Jack Jay Esq to carry this case up to the Court of Appeals of this State, for the purpose of testing whether said Court would order a new trial in this case & direct the lower court to receive the testimony of colored persons.

It will be seen by the enclosed letter of Jack Jay that the highest judicial authority in this State practically declares against receiving negro testimony in cases where white persons are involved.

The Aft Comr regrets to notice the loose manner in which the business of St. Frederick's Office is conducted as evidenced in this case by his clerk assuming to send out Official Communications without the signature of St. Frederick or either of his Military Assistants.

The rule to pursue in all such cases should be to write a polite note (signed by the Supt or one of his Military Assistants) to the party complained of, informing them of the nature of the Complaint, & requesting their attention thereto; which note should be put in a sealed envelope, & delivered by an orderly, where the parties live in this City, & a reasonable time given for a reply thereto.

Hereafter no more warrants, like the Enclosed, will be used. And you are directed to send all you have on hand (in blank) to this Office.

In pursuance of the above you are directed, to write a note to Mrs Roberts, informing her of the Complaint & respectfully asking an explanation & settlement.

Certified ^{copy of the} order of the Court of Henry Co. Ky. taxing all male negroes and mulattoes over Eighteen yrs of age, from five to seven dollars per head, so that this case may be brought to the notice of the U.S. Dist. Court.

You will if possible obtain the affidavit of a Colored person in that Co. who has been officially notified to pay the tax referred to.

The only authority known at this office levying a head tax upon negroes in this State is an Act of the Legislature, Approved March 9, 1867.

This Act is believed to be unconstitutional and void, so far as it relates to male negroes and mulattoes between the ages of 18 and 21 years.

It is the desire of the Asst Comr of this State, that all male negroes and mulattoes over 21 years of age, cheerfully pay the tax authorized by the law of March 9, 1867.

Report of Chaplain J. K. Noble on the above "letter of Mugl. 1867." - what is called, the high school, is taught in the Church which needs no filling up in view of the fact that the building is in a better condition than the majority of school buildings in the state that the teachers receive a salary not less than $30 per month that they receive from the D. Board of the "Col. Ep. Ch. of Ky" per annum that they get from the Bureau $1000 making an agreeable of $1300 per annum while there are a mass of schools in the state equally deserving but receiving no aid from above who are asking for help. I cannot recommend the appropriation be made.

Hospital the Convalescence of the atoms of the Louisville Med College. I was through and Howard, and was to be more a doctor, which I particularly refused, stating that I would not even allow a permit to be furnished to any medical books in or out of the city immediately called upon any official. To make out advised him of my course in the matter & advised him to see that it was carried out in my absence. I also gave orders to Mrs. West to see that every one who was taken from the hospital, which is now in the hands of Dr. Bell, I informed him of the request made by the Government, & suggested that a special order be issued on the subject, which was done as within the report.

Relative to the case of Major John A. Capt. in the 10th Regt of Va. I have the honor to say that I have submitted the report of the order of Capt. Bell, dated at St. Louis on April 4, 1867. I affirm from the that I am of right side of Head & certain members of Staff of Regt from Army, Louisville at present of which Capt. Major is assistant, the box of books to himself a second report on this at all the necessary attention as may be necessary, in view of that, and, but in medical officers, he is not to have the direction given to the room with the exception of a few days after his admission, but before certain disease of the weather, but my cover some system is so affected that he is entirely responsible for anything which he says or does. So far as regards the indignation of citizens of "Common sense" it is a mere fabrication, and the best justification is that with the exception of one or two of Capt. Major's friends, who were in the habit of visiting him at irregular hours taking him beyond the hospital limits & sending him back under the influence of his medical friends. I deemed it my duty to advise you of this fact & your offense & give justice.

Chapterin Miller's endorsement on the above paper dated Aug 6 1867. It respectfully returned with the information that it will cost $2000 to construct a school house in the cheapest of form large enough to accommodate the colored children of Covington. To take down temporary and erect a permanent building will cost about $1500.

There are two nice churches in Covington which have been rented by Mrs. Bureau during the past year, but they are poorly adapted for school purposes, and besides in a city as large as Covington it is desirable to have a comfortable and pleasant school house where the Colored Children can be taught than the Bureau shall have cause to object."

Additional wrapper returning these papers by Capt R. E. Johnston dated Aug 5. 1867 with his endorsement therein as follows: "Respy returned to Bt Brig Genl John Ely Chief Supt. State of Ky. After a careful investigation of the matter"

I have no additional facts to report than those contained in the several communications enclosed herein from A. C. Howard Comr. It appears that Lieut Elliott has in his possession $47.00 which must be accounted for with an order to the U.S. Government. The Bureau at the time that Elliott was in Ky. was, it is believed, considered as the State a self supporting institution and the receipt of the U.S. Agent, so was at that time considered as belonging to the State, and consequently should have been paid to the State at that time, and not to the U.S. Agent. The U.S. Agent, however, received a certain amount of the money for his part, and was paid by the U.S. Government. From the records of this office and the statement of Lieut Elliott it appears he received no salary, but when he left he took his money and took with him $47.00 one half of which he had accounted for to the Chief Supt. State of Ky. and it remained in Lieut Elliott's hands.

In my opinion Lieut Elliott should be allowed one month's pay at $50.00 to be paid by the U.S. The Bureau should not be allowed to pay $47.00. Attention is invited to the report of Mr. Howard in the same & affidavit of Mr. Ely, which are respectfully submitted. The note of this office is that Lieut Elliott was employed in this office until the month of June 1866 and they engaged in the office.

Louisville Aug 7. 1867.

Respectfully forwarded to Maj General C. C. Howard, Comr Washington D whose attention is invited to endorsement of Captain R. E. Johnston dated Aug 5. 1867.

Ent on the above paper by Capt Johnston dated Aug 31. 1867. Copy returned to Pt Brig Genl John D. Lee with new vouchers enclosed & the original Contract entered into between Lt Col James H. Rice & Henry King Rice for the rent of the building within mentioned. Also the letter of instruction from your Office under date of Aug 21. 1866. with remarks that it was understood by myself & the parties from whom the building was rented that it was leased by the year & the party to whom rent is paid intimated that he would bring suit against the Govt to recover the amount if not paid to him. I have returned me the Contract & letter enclosed.

Louisville Sept 5. 67.

Respectfully returned to Captain R. E. Johnston, Chief Sub Asst Quar Lexington Ky.

The enclosed contract, made between Henry King, father, and Pt Lieut Col James H. Rice, should have been submitted at the time it was made, to this Office for approval or disapproval. The failure to do so is a violation of the rules and regulations governing the Q. M. Dept. of the Army in leasing property for any purpose. Had the contract been submitted to this Office it would have been disapproved, for the following reasons; That it does not stipulate that the Govt. should pay rent for the building only for such months as a school was actually taught in said building & that it does not reserve the right to vacate said building at any time at the Govt's option & that the rent should cease at the date of said vacation.

There being no school kept in this house during the months of July and August 1867. no rent will be paid from the funds of this Bureau for the use of said house during those months.

As soon as the school re-opens one hundred $100 dollars per month rent will be paid for the use of the building during the time school continues unless otherwise directed by proper authority.

Enc on the above letter by Lt James P. Bolton U.S.A. dated Aug 29. 1867. Respectfully returned to Bt Brig Gen John Ely, Chief of Ky State of Ky, with the information that I have made as thorough an investigation of the within matter as possible. I have been unable to obtain a copy or transcript of the last Legislature of Ky. to learn from them what was done in the said Legislature regarding the taxing of Freedmen, but I have consulted with the sheriff of this county, the police judge of this city, & the judges of the county & circuit courts, and they all agree that there was an act passed at the last Legislature that each and every colored male seven over, ten only, one year of age should be taxed on the poll or premises viz: Two dollars for the support of the colored indigent and pauper; two dollars for educational purposes for the freedmen which make four dollars, or they shall for the speculative benefit of any person. And then there is a tax of two dollars and 75 cents per tax year on all males over ten only, one year of age irrespective of real estate is applied to county purposes, building bridges, County bridges, &c. But I find by investigation that the whites get their share paid out of this tax making the Freedmen support their own color and are not supported by the poor whites. But the judges told me they had an objection for that in making up the roads, for the blacks were not called upon for that. Aside from the above facts this city has levied a tax of one dollar on each male citizen of twenty one years of age regardless of city purposes. This making for every male Freedman in this city, 2200 taxes, and 6000 taxes levied in the county. This may be the law of the State of Ky, but I cannot see any justice in it. A colored man merely because he is a colored man is called upon to pay 20 fold tax over an above what white men have to pay & for the same reason the colored man is denied the right of suffrage even to testify in the courts of this State against a white man.

Louisville Ky. Sept 6. 1867.

Respectfully referred to Hon James Speed Attorney at Law Louisville Ky, for his opinion as to whether the taxes assessed, as detailed in the enrolment of Lieut James P. Bolton, are authorized by the Statutes of Kentucky, & what course is necessary to protect the Freedmen of Kentucky against this great injustice.

 The report of J. N. Thomas Agt & Co in this case is not satisfactory. It does not appear from his report that he obeyed the instructions in the Endorsement from this Office - as to ascertaining whether the Statement contained in the Affidavit of Martha Atherton was true. He should have taken the Affidavits of the persons mentioned as witnesses and sent them to this Office. And if he could not make the arrest, should have asked for enough troops to do it.

When the officer goes to Nelson to investigate the case of America Wine, have him attend to this case if possible and carry out the instructions contained in the Endorsement to Mr Thomas of Sept 6, 1867.

Capt Isaac S.

Ent on B 76 1867

Ent by Capt Battin dated Sept 25. 1867. Respy forwarded to Pt Brig Genl S. Burbank, A.C. State Ky., for instructions.

The amount due after deducting 4⁰⁰ paid & damages to Dray for alleged careless driving is 11⁰⁰ which McComack refuse to pay. Information derived from reliable sources shows that this man is in the habit of employing freedmen & after keeping them for a time, discharging them without pay. Every possible effort has been made to settle & Compromise this claim without avail.

Louisville Sept 26. 1867

Respectfully returned to Capt Isaac S. Battin, Sub Asst Comr &c Louisville Ky.

There is no law or regulations which will authorize an Officer of this Bureau to Compel payment of a debt of this kind

You can do nothing but advise an amicable settlement of a case of this nature

All freedmen have a right of action for debt in the U.S. Court, but it would not be advisable for a person to commence suit for so small a sum as mentioned in these papers.
